

My name is Geraldine Preston and I am the Parent Support Adviser for Colman Infant and Colman Junior Schools

I am based at Colman Junior School

I am here to support all our families by:

- Listening and talking to children and parents/carers about any questions or queries you have within the family or school
- Helping and supporting you and your child to get the most out of school life
- Helping you to understand your child's learning and development
- Helping where attendance and exclusions may be of concern
- Helping with communication between yourself and school
- Providing impartial information about the schools and local services available to you

Giving advice and support around common issues that can affect you and your child such as:

- Sleep patterns/routines
- Healthy lifestyles
- Financial or budgeting and benefit advice
- Behavioural issues/concerns
- Accessing childcare and help and advice about getting back to work
- Parental Strategies
- Any general concerns that you might have
