

Stars of the Week 13th December 2019

Holly Class Stars of the Week:

Holly Class

For their amazing performance of the Nativity. Everyone sang and signed beautifully and were so sensible and quick when getting changed. All the grown-ups are very proud of you, well done!

Willow Class Stars of the Week:

Willow Class

For their fantastic performance in our Christmas Nativity. Their behaviour was amazing and everyone was so proud. They worked very hard and sang and signed all the songs beautifully. Well done Willow Class!

Beech Class Stars of the Week:

Harley

For being such a keen and enthusiastic member of Beech Class. Harley knows how to be ready to learn - showing excellent listening, fantastic sitting and being a great role model for others to follow. He has demonstrated super skills in PE - a real expert in gymnastics and doing so well in our Teddy Bear dance. You are a star, Harley!

Sarah

For tremendous progress in writing and maths. Sarah is always enthusiastic about her work. She consistently tries her best and is so proud when her efforts are recognised in class. You are expert at drawing too! Well done, Sarah - keep up the brilliant work!

Maple Class Stars of the Week:

Jake

For trying really hard with his writing. When Jake started in Maple Class, he sometimes found it hard to get started with an independent activity. Now Jake is finding it easier to think about what he is going to write and can write more sentences! Well done Jake!

Marlie

For being a great mathematician. Marlie listens well and is always ready to share her answer, or prove how she got it. Marlie can talk about a maths problem, and she likes a challenge. Well done Marlie!

Laurel Class Stars of the Week:

Eve

For being a really mature and helpful member of the class who can be relied upon to carry out tasks independently. She is always ready to learn and approaches school life with enthusiasm. An excellent role model for others.

Simon

For working consistently hard and making fantastic progress. Simon's work is always beautifully presented. He is an excellent role model for others.

Sycamore Class Star of the Week:

Alexa

For working really hard with her reading, writing and maths. She is now able to work more independently and is developing a good attitude to her learning. Well done Alexa!

Emily

For always listening really well and trying her best. Emily is a good role model as she shows she is ready to learn and is prepared for anything! A great attitude!

Lunchtime Star of the Week:

Matthew

For always being so well behaved and helpful at lunchtimes.
