

Stars of the Week 6th December 2019

Holly Class Stars of the Week:

Amber-Rose

Amber-Rose is a star of the week because of how well she has been joining in with singing the Christmas songs we have been practising. She puts lots of effort in every practise, even if she is feeling tired! Well done.

Esmae

Esmae is a star of the week because of how she joins in with the Christmas songs, singing and signing every one! She also does a great job introducing our Nativity. Great job Esmae!

Willow Class Stars of the Week:

Romeo

Romeo is star of the week because of the amazing effort he has put into the Christmas performance. He is having a really good go at signing all the songs and learning all the words, but we are most impressed with his dance moves and his enthusiasm. There is always a smile on his face too! He will be amazing!

Eva

Eva is star of the week because of the amazing effort she has put into our Christmas performance. She is a super singer and signer, but we are most impressed with her ability to remember all the parts in the play and to perform her part at the right moment, prompting all the other children around as well. There is always a smile on her face too! She will be amazing!

Beech Class Stars of the Week:

Cleo

Cleo is always ready to learn. Sitting smartly, listening carefully and showing brilliant concentration. Really keen to participate in partner talking too. She is making so much progress in reading and is keen to show her skills in writing. She demonstrates outstanding ability in gymnastics - what super point and patch balances you have shown us this week! Wow! A great role model, Cleo!

Henry

Henry has shown himself to be a real star this week. He is learning to put his hand up when he wants to say something and has been successful. He is beginning to write independently and take care with his handwriting - he is very proud about that! In Maths, despite finding numbers a bit tricky, he has persevered and kept smiling. Well done, Henry! You are a star!

Maple Class Stars of the Week:

Oscar

Oscar is a confident member of Maple Class. He has shown this in his dancing for the dance show! Oscar works hard and works well with other children, he has great friends. Well done Oscar! Keep up the great work!

Laurel Class Stars of the Week:

Bertie

Bertie is a polite and reliable member of Laurel Class who is always ready to listen and learn. He stays on task and is an excellent partner for others. Whilst maths is his favourite subject, he also tries hard in other areas of the curriculum that he may find more challenging. Well done, Bertie!

Grace

Grace is a kind and thoughtful member of Laurel Class who is always considerate of other people's feelings. She is a good friend to others and recently has helped a new child visiting our class to feel happy and safe. Grace is always polite and helpful in the classroom. Her kindness is a real asset in Laurel Class.

Sycamore Class Star of the Week:

Max

For always coming into school smiling and being willing to have a go at anything. Well done Max, what a great attitude.

Bethany

Bethany has really begun to get into her stride in year 2, she listens and is able to tackle tasks independently. She is able to concentrate really well and is beginning to make good progress in everything she does. Keep up this great attitude Bethany.

Lunchtime Star of the Week:

Isabella

For always being so kind and helpful.
