

Stars of the Week 13th March 2020

Holly Class Star of the Week:

Marla

For being so kind and polite to everybody. Marla is really considerate and can always be relied upon to help other people. Well done Marla!

Willow Class Stars of the Week:

Libby

For being a super role-model in the classroom. Libby continues to show us her readiness to learn at carpet times as she is always one of the first children to be sitting beautifully. She also shows her peers how to stand nicely in the line and how to walk sensibly around school. Well done Libby!

Abu

For being a super role-model. Abu is always helpful in the classroom and at tidy up time he shows everyone how it's done! When Abu uses something in the classroom he puts it away when he's finished. Superstar!

Beech Class Stars of the Week:

Sarah

For fantastic concentration and understanding in Maths particularly when collecting Data and creating Block Graphs.

Ayman

For good listening on the carpet and great drawing and labelling on his Story Map.

Maple Class Stars of the Week:

Leila

For settling into Maple Class. Leila found things tricky to start with, but has soon found friends. She is really helpful in class and is working hard. Well done Leila!

Logan

For settling into Maple Class. Logan is kind and helpful, and always has a smile. We are really happy to have him in our class! Well done Logan!

Laurel Class Stars of the Week:

Jacob

For being a delightful member of Laurel Class. Jacob always treats other children kindly and is a good friend. Recently he has been working especially hard on his writing and is beginning to work faster and to write more.

Andras

For being an excellent role model. Andras has a very positive attitude to learning. He always works with enthusiasm, is confident when sharing his ideas with others and is making very good progress.

Sycamore Class Stars of the Week:

Aysha

For being a fantastic partner during Topic work. Aysha concentrated well, helped her partner and took turns when working on their information booklet about Mexico.

Bethan

For being a fantastic partner during Topic work. Bethan concentrated well, helped her partner and took turns when working on their information booklet about Mexico.

MSA Star of the Week

Eve

For always being so sensible, polite and helpful. Well done Eve, you are a star!
