Rainbow for key workers

My family and I wanted to show our support for all the key workers helping us at this time. We collected lots of books from around our house and arranged them to look like a rainbow. We used lots of different books, from Mr. Men to recipe books! Can you see any that you recognise?